EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

NOT SO WARLIKE

Russia Adopts a Conciliatory Tone Towards England.

BUT WAR MOVEMENTS CONTINUE

A [illegible] Journal Cries On to Herat—War Notes from Various Countries—The Franco-Chinese Peace Preliminaries—Etc.

LONDON, April 14.—The Novoe Vremya [illegible] communications with [illegible] the [illegible] government [illegible] ought to [illegible] accounts of events and to [illegible] of Russian officers, which are [illegible] English [illegible]. While we are collecting evidence Russia is [illegible] things [illegible] the news from [illegible] indicate that a [illegible].

The Daily News this morning says: If General Komaroff's reports were true, the only answer Russia would give them would be [illegible] need of the formality of a declaration of war. The guns would go off of themselves. We have rather to fear [illegible] answers.

TURKEY TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

LONDON, April 14.—In an interview with Earl Granville, [illegible] Pasha said the porte is unwilling to enter into active alliance with either England or Russia. It is reported that Earl Granville protested against the adoption of a neutral policy as it implied the closing of the Bosphorus to English ships of war.

LONDON STOCK BOARD

LONDON, April 14, 1 P. M.—Consols opened at 94⅝ for both accounts, declined to 94[illegible], recovered to [illegible] and are now [illegible]. Russian securities opened at 81½ and are now 8[illegible].

1 P. M.—The stock market is on a downward tendency. Home and foreign funds are weak.

[illegible] P. M.—Consols are now [illegible] for both accounts. This is [illegible] below the closing figures of last night.

[illegible] P. M.—Consols for the accounts now [illegible].

[illegible] P. M.—Consols [illegible] for both.

[illegible] P. M.—Consols [illegible] for both accounts. This is [illegible] below the closing last night.

Stocks closed flat although not at the worst prices of the day. The fortnightly settlement proceeds satisfactorily. There is a complete absence of even rumors in regard to failures.

WAR NOTES

LONDON, April 14.—Lord Dufferin has informed the government that the ameer consents to the passage of British troops through Afghanistan.

Preparations for war continue with increasing vigor and a force of extra workmen has been engaged at the Chatham dockyard to-day.

Lloyd's insurance premiums on bottoms for the Black sea, sea of Azof and the Baltic sea have been doubled.

Seven thousand animals for transportation service of the Indian army are proceeding to Pishin.

The harbor of Bombay has been lined with torpedoes so as to prevent the Russian fleet from entering it pending the event of war, and four million cartridges have been landed at Bombay.

At Cirencester, near Gloucester, to-day, during a parade of [illegible] Gloucester militia, recruits were invited to join the regulars and 180 men responded to the invitation.

A dispatch from Chatham announces that a large draft of marines has been ordered to join the Baltic fleet at Devonport to-morrow.

GLADSTONE SPEAKS IN THE COMMONS

Gladstone in the house of commons this afternoon stated that word had been received from Sir Peter Lumsden which showed there was no confirmation of the report that the Russians had not retired to the Murghab river after the battle of Penjdeh. Continuing, Gladstone said the result of the government's communication with Russia concerning the reported advance amounted to the renewing of Russia's assurance that no such advance will occur if the issuance of contrary instructions can prevent it.

IN THE LORDS

Earl Granville, foreign minister, stated this forenoon in the house of lords that the government was still engaged in making inquiry into the reported advance of Russians to the Murghab river. Referring to the queen's message calling out the reserves, Earl Granville said whatever measures might be taken they will entirely meet the requirements of the Indian government.

IMPORTANT NEWS RECEIVED

LONDON, April 14—7 P. M.—The cabinet has been summoned to immediate council in consequence of receipt by government of further important dispatches in regard to the Afghan question.

The cabinet was in session one hour and twenty minutes. Immediately after adjournment Earl Granville had a prolonged interview with Musurus Pasha, special envoy from Turkey.

EXTENSIVE PREPARATIONS

Military preparations of the British government continue unabated. The government has decided to purchase four more steamers similar to the America and to equip them as armed cruisers. The number of British men-of-war now being prepared for service is so great that it is believed active officers cannot be found for them all and it will be necessary to resort to the retired list. The steel armor plated turret ship Colossus, of 7100 tons register and 9400 horse power, one of the most formidable ironclads in the British navy, will be soon ready for sea, and it is believed will be attached to the Baltic fleet.

Gibraltar and other British strongholds are to be put into a complete state of defense. An additional supply of torpedoes of the latest approved pattern is being forwarded to all naval stations both at home and abroad.

REPLIES EXPECTED

Sir Peter Lumsden's reply to Gen. Komoroff's report is expected in London on the 21st inst. Gen. Komoroff's reply to Degiers' request for a further explanation of the affair of March 30, which request was made at the instance of the British government yesterday, is expected to arrive on the 25th inst.

THE OUTLOOK MORE PEACEFUL.

LONDON, April 15.—The Daily News in an editorial this morning says: "The situation shows a more peaceful tendency, but though the intentions of Russia are good now we cannot assume that they will be carried out. Events have simplified England's task. If war is to be avoided it must be shown that the Afghans, not the Russians, are blamable for the collision, and also that Komoroff's action is no part of the Russian policy. Then there must be no further Russian advance. If Russia is as anxious for peace as England is, peace ought to be secure."

The dispatch from St. Petersburg alluded to by Gladstone yesterday carries forward the negotiations on the frontier question which were interrupted by the Penjdeh affair. It is studiously conciliatory in tone.

COURIER SERVICE TO BE ORGANIZED

The British foreign office has sent directions to the British minister at Teheran to organize a courier service to fill up the gaps in the telegraph lines by which communication is had with Sir Peter Lumsden.

The latest reports from Meshed explain the Russian advance on the Murghab river as a Cossack reconnoissance towards Maruchak to obtain information regarding the Afghan positions. The Cossacks, according to these reports, afterward returned to Pul-i-Khisti.

Sir Lepel Griffin has gone on a special mission to the greater native princes of India to arrange for the organization of an army of India and central Asia.

The ameer of Afghanistan, after holding a durbar at Cabul, will send envoys to Bokhara, Samarcand and others centers in Asiatic Russia to offer the natives English aid, money and arms to fight against Russia.

ON TO HERAT

Rumors were current in the house of commons to-night that the Russian troops were advancing to Herat. These rumors have not been confirmed.

The Russian military organ, the Svet, sums up the situation thus: "Forward to Herat, now is the time."

RUSSIAN MOVEMENTS

LONDON, April 14.—The government has received a telegram from the English agent at Meshed stating it is rumored among the Afghans that the Russians are at Maruchak.

GERMANY'S MEDIATION NOT SOUGHT

PARIS, April 14.—A special dispatch from Berlin to the Journal des Debats says England and Russia have not sought the good offices of Germany as mediator in the Afghan difficulty, and Germany has not offered to act in that capacity.

THE TROUBLE DISCUSSED

PARIS, April 14.—The French cabinet at its session to-day discussed the Afghan trouble between Russia and England. Dispatches from the French ministers at St. Petersburg, London and Berlin state that the situation is improved.

FROM BOMBAY

BOMBAY, April 14.—The government has decided to charter fifty vessels comprising the Indian fleet. It is making large purchases of provisions from private firms. Fifty thousand animals en route to India are loaded with stores and provisions.

A RUSSIAN MINISTER'S OPINION

VIENNA, April 14.—Kaulbars, Russian minister, says: The first shot was virtually fired by the Afghans. Komaroff's conduct was thoroughly correct. He did not even occupy territory on the Russian side which by the terms of the convention he might have done. The Afghans fought in the beginning with bravery, but at last fled in wild confusion, leaving all their artillery and trains in the hands of Komaroff, as well as many of their dead and wounded. Respecting Komaroff, Kaulbars said: In rank he is a lieutenant general and a member of the general staff. In the army he is known as a most cautious and almost timid commander, and though not fearing danger, he fears to take the responsibility of action. Kaulbars concluded: I personally do not believe there will be war.

SEARCHING POLAND FOR ARMS.

VIENNA, April 14.—There is news from Russian Poland to the effect that the Russian police are searching all chateaus and castles in Podolia and Ukraine for arms, and seizing all they find unless they possess [illegible] between England and Russia.

[illegible]

VIENNA, April 14.—The Russian [illegible] to Archangel [illegible] congress at that post.

RUSSIAN TROOPS [illegible] ACROSS [illegible]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—The [illegible] Gazette says [illegible] of Russian troops [illegible] the Afghan frontier.

RUSSIA [illegible]

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The Ledger says it [illegible] $10,000 more for the dispatch [illegible] this country [illegible]. The [illegible] Russian government and [illegible] answer [illegible] United States.

CANADA

[illegible]

NEW YORK, April 14.—A special from Ottawa says: The long promised bill to restrict Chinese immigration into Canada was brought down by Secretary Scott to-day. The bill provides that every person of Chinese origin shall pay into the Dominion treasury $[illegible] on entering any Canadian port, except members of diplomatic corps, tourists, merchants, traders, etc. Every Chinese person desiring to leave the country will be required to obtain a certificate which on being presented on his return admits him free of duty tax. It was originally intended that the rights of franchise be extended to such of Chinese as had complied with the regulation and who were worth $1000 clear of all incumbrances. This section of the bill, however, has been revoked.

NEGOTIATING FOR PEACE

OTTAWA, Ont., April 14.—Mr. Royal returned yesterday [illegible] with his arrival [illegible] arrangement had been made by which [illegible] with the half breeds [illegible] would be avoided. It is reported to-day that negotiations looking to peace were in progress yesterday by telegraph between General Middleton and Louis Riel and that such negotiations are still proceeding.

A GRANT OF MONEY WANTED

OTTAWA, April 14.—In the house of commons a message from the governor general was read asking parliament to grant immediately $[illegible],000 towards defraying the expenses of putting down the northwest rebellion.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE TROUBLE

A HITCH IN THE ARRANGEMENTS

LONDON, April 14.—Dispatches from Shanghai received this afternoon state that there is a hitch in the final arrangements for execution of the definite treaty of peace between France and China, owing to some concessions which China asks and which the French ambassador refuses to grant.

A TELEGRAM FROM PATENOTRE

PARIS, April 14.—The following telegram was received to-day from Patenotre, French minister to China: The Official Gazette of Pekin to-day publishes an imperial decree ordering the execution of a preliminary treaty of peace between China and France. The decree orders the viceroy of Canton to send a customs commissioner and a mandarin to Hanoi to make arrangements with General De Lisle for the evacuation of Tonquin by the Chinese troops. The chief of the Black Flags has received a title equivalent to that of baron. He will be made governor of a Chinese province and receive a large sum of money to enable him to pay and disband his followers.

THE SOUDAN

THE COUNTRY ENTIRELY OPEN

SUAKIM, April 14.—British cavalry visited Otao, eight miles beyond Haleding. No hostile Arabs were encountered. Water was found plentiful. The country appeared to be entirely open and the Arab population were eager to sell supplies to the English.

Italian troops have occupied Arafali on the [illegible] of the Red sea and have hoisted the Italian flag alongside that of Egypt.

ARABS EVACUATING METEMNEH

DONGOLA, April 14.—Deserters from El Mahdi's army report the rebels have evacuated Berti and Metemneh and that the garrisons of those two places have gone respectively to Berber and Khartoum. Numbers of Bishareens are leaving Osman Digna's country and taking their families to Berber.

NOT ORDERED TO RETURN HOME

CAIRO, April 14.—It is officially denied here that the British [illegible] in the Soudan has been ordered to return home.

IRELAND

THE PRINCE GOES TO CORK

DUBLIN, April 14.—The Prince and Princess of Wales on their way to Cork to-day received an enthusiastic reception at Lismore. In the counties of Cork and Waterford 800 laborers presented an address of welcome. At Dungarvan, when the train bearing the royal party passed, all the vessels in the bay lowered their flags. At one town when the royal party went by a black flag was hoisted over a temperance hall, but loyalists made a good demonstration. The Prince and Princess then went to Curraghmore. In Cork most of the streets were spanned by triumphal arches, and a majority of the business houses were adorned with flags in honor of the advent of the royal visitors.

ENGLAND.

GUARDING AGAINST CHOLERA

LONDON, April 14.—Consul General Merritt, at London, and Consul Packard, at Liverpool, will reappoint the sanitary inspectors chosen during the cholera alarm last summer, to examine all vessels sailing from London and Liverpool to the United States.

AN IMPERIAL FEDERATION

LONDON, April 14.—The correspondence between the home government and the governments of the British colonies on the subject of an imperial federation has come to a satisfactory conclusion. Earl Derby, secretary of state for the colonies, will soon introduce a federation bill in parliament.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

PEACE AGAIN REIGNS

LIBERTAD (via Galveston), April 14.—A basis of peace was to-day accepted by San Salvador and Guatemala. Hostilities have ceased. General amnesty has been proclaimed and awaits approval of the allies. Plenipotentiaries will meet in Acajutla to arrange a definite treaty of peace.

SOLDIERS ORDERED HOME

NEW ORLEANS, April 14.—Captain Doane of the steamship Heredia, which arrived here to-day from Port Simon, Guatemala, says soldiers at that port have been ordered home. He says the Central American difficulties are apparently settled by the death of Barrios.

EGYPT

SERIOUS DISORDERS THREATENED

CAIRO, April 14.—The feeling of indignation here over the forcible suppression by Egypt of the French newspaper Bosphore Egyptien has reached such a danger as to threaten serious disorders. Guards have been doubled in the city and troops are now confined to the barracks.

SOUTH AMERICA

ALL WELL AT PANAMA

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Colonel McCawley, commandant of the United States marine corps, has received the following telegram from Colonel Heywood, dated Panama, April 13: "Transit is kept open by the marine battalion. In the camp at Panama station all are well."

FRANCE.

THE PARIS BOURSE

PARIS, April 14.—The bourse opened this morning very flat, but at midday had rallied. The improved feeling did not last, however, and the market closed depressed. The political outlook is regarded here as very grave and fears of financial troubles are entertained.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

BIG STRIKE ON THE CANADIAN PACIFIC

VICTORIA, April 14.—Reports from the interior state that 5000 employes of the Canadian Pacific railway have gone on a strike, on account of not receiving their wages.

ITALY

THE BISHOP OF NESQUALLY RECEIVED

ROME, April 14.—The pope to-day received the bishop of Nesqually, Washington territory.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR

FISH BITTER AGAINST WARD

NEW YORK, April 14.—Fish, the convicted ex-president of the Marine bank, is very bitter against Ward. He declares that he was completely imposed upon. "As sure as there is a God in heaven, where I go that man shall go; that is my only consolation and hope. I am an old man, 66 years old, a time of life when a man needs and seeks rest. I care very little where that rest is to be found. It may be within the walls of a prison, but I shall be sure the same fate awaits Ward. I would go through all I have suffered and more if it would clear the path from all obstructions to the final overthrow of that man."

TWO MEN LYNCHED

UNION CITY, Tenn., April 14.—Budd Farriss, white, and Freeman Ward, colored, were hanged at the fair grounds early this morning by a mob of 200 men. It is charged that Farriss and Ward belonged to a gang of thieves who have committed many depredations.

A MURDER MYSTERY.

"So Perish all Traitors to the Great Cause."

A HEADLESS BODY IN A TRUNK

A Political Offender Removed by his Room-mate—The Men Evidently from London and Members of Some Secret Organization

ST. LOUIS, April 14.—A sensation was caused at the Southern hotel this morning by the finding in a room of a trunk containing the headless body of a man, with a note within the trunk saying, "so perish all traitors to the great cause." The room was assigned March 30th to Walter W. Lennox Maxwell, London, England.

DESCRIPTION OF MAXWELL

Maxwell is described as a very girlish looking but dapper young man, wearing a dark woolly cutaway suit of English stuff. His face was clean-shaven and he wore his hair banged, not parting it at all. He was frequently seen in company with a dark looking gentleman about five feet ten inches tall. The latter wore a dark mustache and had dark hair. This gentleman registered as Arthur Preller, London, England, and was assigned room 184. Four days after Maxwell had registered a telegram was received from Preller asking whether Maxwell was a guest of the house. He was answered in the affirmative and soon came on and was assigned to the room given. Both men occupied 184 in common a considerable part of the time. Each called for the key and the clerk gave it to each indiscriminately, as they seemed good friends and intimate acquaintances. The men were remarked much about the hotel for their dudish appearance and dandified airs.

Maxwell left the hotel a week ago Sunday night, and had a full week's board prepaid, and it was supposed he would return any day. No suspicion attached to his absence until a horrible smell called attention to the room and led to the opening of the trunk.

THE BODY

When the trunk containing the body was opened it was found to contain the body of a middle-aged man, face and breast up, and the body so doubled about the hips and knees that it filled the receptacle on the side of the trunk. Over the head of the corpse was printed in large letters the words "So perish all traitors to the great cause." The trunk and its ghastly contents were immediately hurried to Four Courts. The body as it appeared in the trunk presented a horrible aspect. The face and parts of the body were uncovered, the only garment being a pair of drawers reaching just to the knees, which were entirely black and showed advanced decomposition. Preller's trunks are of a much better quality than Maxwell's, being made of fine leather. Personal effects in them indicate that the owner was a gentleman of means and culture. The trunks have on them the label of the Cunard Steamship Company and the Continental hotel, Philadelphia, where he occupied room 186 March 26. He had also been at Toronto.

Following is a description of Maxwell given by a person who saw and conversed with him daily while he was at the Southern hotel: He was about five feet and a half inches in height, weighed about 140, well proportioned, and rather good figure. His face was of the English type and cleanly shaven; eyes light blue, I think, or at least they were not dark in color; hair of light sandy color, were it cut very short behind and rather bushy in front, with a tiny part and banged like a girl's. He generally dressed in a brown tweed suit of English cut, Newmarket overcoat and high Derby hat. In his manners he was very effeminate. He even carried this so far as to walk with a short mincing step like a woman.

DESCRIPTION OF PRELLER

This afternoon the body of Preller was exposed on a slab in the morgue for further identification, with the following description given by Superintendent [illegible]: Deceased was about five feet nine inches in height, weighing about 150 pounds, black hair, and eyes of dark color, wore white knit drawers; no other clothing came with the body; was about 2[illegible] or 2[illegible] years old; body very much decomposed; has been dead ten or twelve days; cuticle protruding; large blisters on both legs; a cut into flesh on breast.

The following telegram found among the papers of Preller is the best clue to the relations of Preller and Maxwell:

BOSTON, Mass., March 18, 1885.

C. A. Preller, Belvidere hotel, corner Fourth avenue and Eighteenth street: Yes, I could go direct to Auckland from here. Will write to Philadelphia to-morrow.

W. H. LENNOX MAXWELL.

SOME LETTERS

From a letter from the steamship company it is learned that Preller sailed from England for this country in the Cephalonia on January 21, 1885, on a commercial tour of this country and Australia. The telegram given above would indicate that Maxwell agreed to accompany him to Australia.

Among letters found in Preller's trunk was the following:

No. 9 CLINTON PLACE, NEW YORK CITY,
March 27, 1885.

I have great pleasure in introducing to you by this note our dear brother, Mr. C. A. Preller, of London, England, known to us by several visits he has paid to New York. Hoping you may be mutually profited by this friendship during his stay in your city, I am yours, RICHARD W. OWENS.

To Rev. Dr. James H. Brooks, 212 North Fifth street, St. Louis; Mrs. Grierson, 36 New Montgomery street, San Francisco; Mr. A. Gais, San Francisco; Ed. Moyse, evangelist, care W. L. Lees, New Zealand; John Magill, care A. Campbell, Napier, New Zealand.

P. S.—This friendship was awakened by my bringing him to a tea meeting for young men at which dear H. G. Grunners spoke. Dora Olson, 842 Valencia street, San Francisco, is well known to Brother Moyse.

MAXWELL PURCHASES CHLOROFORM

Among many other things in Maxwell's trunks were found some prescription blanks from Fernow's drug store, corner Fifth and Market streets, this city. On being questioned Fernow said this afternoon that he knew Maxwell, that the latter had been in his store often, that he saw him last on Easter Sunday, when he called about 10 o'clock and got four ounces of chloroform. About 4 o'clock he came in and got two ounces more. He seemed to be in a hurry, but not excited. A partly filled bottle of chloroform was found in Maxwell's trunk to-day. It has also been learned that on Monday following Easter Sunday Maxwell went to Hickman's barber shop, corner Fifth and Chestnut streets, and had the beard which he wore reduced to a moustache and an imperial, and on the same day he purchased a snuff colored slouched hat, with a crease crown, which he had marked on the inside "Harold Harland Duff."

Putting these things together it is believed by those who have studied the case most closely that Maxwell chloroformed and killed Preller on Sunday, April 5, and it is known he has not been seen in the city since Monday, April 6. Some detectives were at first inclined to believe that the body had been placed in the trunk by some medical student with a view of playing a ghastly joke upon the community, but this theory has now been abandoned by all.

A DETECTIVE'S OPINION

Chief of Detectives Burke said to a reporter: It is a foul murder, nothing less. The man in the trunk was killed in the room. Marks of his blood are there yet. Here is a trunk strap with blood on it. The idea that it could be a hoax is absolutely absurd.

What do you think of the placard in the trunk, "So perish all traitors to the great cause?"

"That may or may not be a clew. It may be a deliberate attempt to make us believe the murder was a political assassination, while it is a murder for money. Of course all that can be done to run the criminal down will be done. Surely the man must not escape. Everything that can be done will be done to capture him. The public may depend on it."

ACCIDENTS

THE NEW YORK CATASTROPHE

NEW YORK, April 14.—With daylight this morning it was easy enough to see the cause of the terrible accident in Sixty second street yesterday. The buildings fell because there was simply nothing to hold them together. Buddensick, the builder of the tenements that fell, has constructed block after block in the neighborhood of those that fell yesterday. Philip Hausman, builder, said: The houses fell because they were rotten. They were built of refuse. Look at the bricks that were being used. They are no bricks, but halves and quarters and chunks of bricks poorly burnt, the miserable offal of a brick yard. There is no mortar on them at all. The stuff used in laying the bricks in the wall was simply wet dirt.

Gangs of men worked all night on the ruins of the eight fallen tenements in West Sixty second street, but turned up nothing save bricks and broken timbers. No dead or injured were found, and there are no signs of life about the ragged heaps of wreck. The firemen are of the opinion that there are bodies in the ruins. Hope grows stronger, however, that this may not be so. Neither at the hospital nor at the police station had inquiries been made for missing persons up to 10 o'clock.

SEVERAL SCHOOL CHILDREN INJURED

TOLEDO, April 14.—While a party of school children were gathered to-day upon a platform the floor gave way, precipitating the entire party, about twenty five in number, to the ground, a distance of twenty feet, a portion of the structure falling on them. Three boys were seriously injured, one it is feared fatally, and eight were more or less hurt.

GENERAL GRANT.

Is the Old Hero Dying Because of Medical Intolerance

The American Homœopathist has an article on the treatment of General Grant by the Allopaths, in which it says:

"General Washington was murdered by his medical attendants, but at least they were heroically—too heroically—endeavoring to extinguish the disease. Their brutality was of the active sort and in purpose commendable though disastrous in result. General Garfield was maltreated for months under an error of diagnosis, and at last escaped beyond the reach of his eminent torturers. Here, also, there was much medical heroism and activity displayed, albeit misdirected. Other illustrious patients have suffered from eminence in the profession, but General Grant seems reserved as a shining example of cold blooded expectancy. To him the little group of eminence have nothing to offer but a diagnosis. For him they propose no relief but in the grave. Ignoring the only source of therapeutic salvation, they gather round his bedside to observe his unaided struggle. The fiat has gone forth that nothing can be done and nothing will be permitted to be done. Those who question such a decision are quacks and cranks, but who ought not to be proud of such a designation from such a source. Scholarly, refined, cultured, earnest gentlemen as they are, of what avail are all these good qualities in the presence of such therapeutic bankruptcy. On the contrary, while so-called scientific medicine is to the fore, well may the daily papers announce in startling headlines, 'A bad day for General Grant—Seven doctors in consultation.'"

Yes, the hero of Appomattox is dying!

He who knew no fear in war, knows no fear in suffering. His quiet fortitude wins universal admiration.

President Lincoln, in visiting a hospital during the late war, noticed a poor Confederate boy, mortally wounded. With his native tenderness he put his arms around his neck in sympathy. The sight melted the hospital to tears.

The heart of the American people in like manner bleeds for Grant, the silent sufferer. It would have him get well by any effective means.

His physicians say he cannot recover. They fill him with anodynes, but despite their favorable bulletins he is daily growing worse.

A specialist who has won reputation in the treatment of cancer visits his bedside. The opposition he encounters from the attending physicians brings painfully to mind the story of the dog in the manger.

And General Grant perhaps must die because of this intolerance! Is it possible that there is no hope of cure outside of the medical profession?

Preposterous!

For years medical men insisted that certain fevers were incurable, but Chinchona proved the contrary. For centuries they have protested that certain renal disorders were incurable and yet a special preparation has cured and permanently cured the very worst cases.

Why may it not be possible in like manner to cure a case of cancer? B. F. Larrabee, of Boston, was doomed to death by many eminent Boston physicians. J. B. Henion, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., was given up by the best doctors of all schools. Elder J. S. Prescott, of Cleveland, Ohio, was gravely informed by them that he could not live, and yet these men and thousands like them have been cured and cured permanently of serious kidney disorders by a remedy not officially known to the code.

What has been done may be done again.

General Auron Stager died of Bright's disease in Chicago last week. "Joe" Goss, the Boston pugilist, died of it. Hundreds of thousands of people perish of it every year while in their doctor's hands. The cause of death may be called blood poisoning, paralysis, heart disease, convulsions, apoplexy, pneumonia, or some other common ailment, but the real difficulty is in the kidneys. Physicians know it, but they conceal the fact from their patients, realizing their inability to cure by any "authorized" means. The remedy that cured Larrabee and Henion and Prescott (i. e., Warner's safe cure) is a special independent discovery. Its record entitles it to recognition, and it gets it from intelligent people. Its manufacturers have an unsullied reputation, and are entitled to as great consideration as any school of physicians.

Professor R. A. Gunn, M. D., dean of the United States Medical college of New York city, rises above professional prejudice and on its personally proved merits alone gives it several pages of the warmest commendation in his published works—the only instance on record of a high professional endorsement of such a preparation.

The unprejudiced people do not want General Grant to die. If there is in all nature or anywhere in the world a remedy or a man able to cure his cancer, give them a chance.

Will they do it?

No.

Why?

Is it not too often the case that many excellent physicians who are greatly devoted to the code would prefer that their patients should die rather than that they should recover health by the use of any remedy not recognized under their code?

PACIFIC COAST.

CALIFORNIA.

WHY ZEBEHR PASHA WAS ARRESTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—A correspondent of the Call writes from Alexandria, Egypt, giving details of the cause which led to the arrest of Zebehr Pasha at Alexandria, and his removal on a British man of war to Malta about a month ago. He states that Zebehr Pasha was plotting with Arab priests, the ulema and sheiks, for destroying the whole of the European population in Egypt, and that the plot was ready to break out on Sunday, March 15th. At a preconcerted signal the water supply was to be cut off, and 20,000 Arabs would arm themselves from supplies contained in the mosques for the purpose, and would be ready to murder Europeans rushing out of burning houses, as it was intended to set fire to every house inhabited by Europeans. On discovery of the plot Zebehr was arrested.

ARRIVAL OF A NEW STEAMSHIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—There has arrived in this port a new steamship, called the Raiatea, built at Leibeck, Germany, and owned by the Societe Commerciale de L'Oceanie, but flying the German flag. The Raiatea is first of a fleet of four or five steamers which this company will place on the route between San Francisco, the Marquesas islands and Tahiti.

ANOTHER CLAIMANT TO THE BLYTHE ESTATE.

Considerable surprise was created here by news that a telegram was received to-day from London, requesting T. E. K. Cormac to appear in the probate court on behalf of Mrs. Caroline Glover Robson, of London, who claims to be sole legatee of the late millionaire Thomas H. Blythe, by a will made in London, and now in transit to this city.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrived—British steamer Barnard Castle, Departure bay; ship Shirley, Tacoma. Sailed—Steamer Oregon, Astoria; steamer San Pedro, Tacoma; ship Yosemite, Tacoma.

UTAH

THE CHURCH ORGAN SPEAKS.

SALT LAKE, April 14.—The Mormon church organ to-night denounces the action of O. P. Arnold yesterday in pleading guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation, and declaring that he would live within the laws and give moral aid and support to the same. It says: "Notwithstanding that the course taken by Brother Arnold received the encomiums of the court, its officers, and the approval of the spectators, his example is not one any consistent Latter Day Saint can afford to follow. The spectacle he presented is not a noble one. If every member of the church similarly situated to Mr. Arnold wants to pursue a like course, it would appear as if men who profess to be observers of the commandments of God were overcome by the influences of fear. Latter Day Saints cannot afford to renounce any principle of their religion, or any of its obligations, no matter what may be the degree of pressure brought to bear to compel them to be recreant to their duty. If they repudiate that God established, the Lord will throw them out, and all lovers of consistency and those who admire men who maintain the courage of their convictions will despise them. We regret that Brother Arnold should have assumed the position he has taken." Immediately following this is a column and a half editorial declaring Christianity a failure.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

STABBING AFFRAY AT CHENEY

CHENEY, April 14.—A serious stabbing affray occurred in this city a few hours ago. Charles Seaman, of this city, was stabbed several times in the head by one Wilce Coyle, a somewhat noted character from Lincoln county. The origin of the difficulty was an old feud. Coyle is now in jail. Seaman is badly cut, but is resting easy.

STATE DISPATCHES.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT

ASHLAND, April 14.—Jasper Houck, proprietor of the Ashland house and one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens in town, was thrown from a horse which he was riding and received what is supposed to be fatal injuries. He has been unconscious for the past three hours and no hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Frightful Waste.

Consumption carries off its thousands of victims every year. Yes, thousands of human lives are being wasted that might be saved, for the fact is now established that consumption, in its early stages, is curable. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will, if used in time, effect a permanent cure. It has no equal as a remedy for bron[illegible] and colds. Its efficacy has been proven in thousands of cases. All druggists.

The Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1885

LICENSE IS A TAX

There is a single point in the letter on prohibition printed to-day to which THE OREGONIAN desires to make answer, because in that point lurks a fallacy that affects the whole argument for legal prohibition The writer says "Your plan is to license men to sell the poisonous drinks and so increase the demand by offering the supply in the most attractive way and then content yourself with trying to reform a few by temperance societies," etc. The capital mistake of those who argue in this way is their refusal to see that what is called "license" is not an authorization to sell what could not otherwise be sold, but a restriction or a burden in the form of a tax upon that which would otherwise be sold free The prohibitionist pretends to hold those who insist on taxing the sale of liquors to responsibility for existence of the traffic. But in fact they are doing the best they can in the circumstances They find a general demand for liquors, which they know they cannot prevent from being supplied, and experience, as well as common sense, shows them that the best they can do is to tax the sale of the article This is what the term "license," as applied to the liquor traffic means. The advocates of prohibition by legal enactment do not help their case by uncandid assertion that the liquor business would have no existence but for the enactment of laws to tax it.

In still another sense a law to "license" or tax is a restriction, because it prohibits the sale by every person who is not taxed. Without such law every person may sell the article, and a traffic that ought to bear a heavy tax, and can be made to bear a heavy tax as a condition of its existence—though it cannot be suppressed, because men will have the article—will be entirely free.

The inquiry, "How would it do to license opium dens because there is some demand for them?" is far-fetched, forced, and not at all pertinent. The analogy fails because there is no general demand for opium as there is for alcoholic liquors. No man admits that he wants places established where he may go to smoke opium, while great numbers—and in cities and large towns a great majority—show by their patronage of drinking saloons that they do want and will have places where they can get whisky and beer. We have to deal in this world with men and things as we find them, and not with an imaginary or ideal state of society. Prohibition of opium dens is practicable because the number of people who want to smoke opium is extremely few; yet prohibition of opium dens is very ineffective. Prohibition of liquor shops is not practicable, because there are so many who want to drink and whose demand for drink creates depots of supply If Oregon now had a prohibitory law saloons in Portland would not be closed by it. They would sell as much as ever, and be free from tax. A military despotism here, supported by the whole army of the United States, could not close the saloons of Portland Men of judgment know this, and because they do not want liquors sold free of tax they do not want a so-called prohibitory law

DIDN'T GET HER OUT

Miss Ada C. Sweet is pension agent at Chicago. The commissioner of pensions at Washington, J. C Black, is a politician of Illinois Black wants the pension office at Chicago to bestow on some political hack, and to get it he sent a letter to Miss Sweet demanding her resignation. Her management of the office has been irreproachable, and she refused. Her father, General Sweet, was a gallant Union soldier, and the daughter was appointed to the office largely as a recognition of what was due to his family for his services. When Miss Sweet received Commissioner Black's call to resign she appealed directly to the president, and a copy of her letter was furnished to the press It raised a storm about the ears of the president and his commissioner, who are now convinced that they made a mistake in summoning a woman to surrender in a manner that might imply a doubt of her official honesty or efficiency So many protests have been made by the press that the president has not dared to go on with the programme for her removal, and therefore she still holds the fort. Among the loudest protesters are the "mugwump" organs, all of which have appealed to the president not to make a removal which would call upon him a storm of criticism and be an irreparable mistake The Boston Herald says:

> We hope Miss Sweet will follow Sumner's advice to Stanton and stick. She is the daughter of a gallant Union general who succeeded him in the office eleven years ago Her present term does not expire until April 1886. But, though her resignation is asked for the commissioner expressly states, it is said that the request is not based "upon any reason personal to Miss Sweet or the management of the office In other words the place is wanted for somebody else This is not reform.

The New York Evening Post says

> The request for Miss Sweet's resignation coupled as it is with an expression of entire satisfaction with her management of the office savors strongly of the spoils system and appears to be in contravention with President Cleveland's letter to the civil service reform league In this letter Mr Cleveland distinctly indicated his purpose not to remove faithful nor partisan officers during their respective terms merely to make places for other persons Miss Sweet's term does not expire until April 1886 She has certainly not used her place for political ends She is not even a voter

Since the president has called a halt in this case it is evident that he has turned back over his files to look up his letter so as to find what he did say He is giving his "mugwump" friends no end of trouble by his frequent slips The New York Times says the attempt to remove Miss Sweet is "not only a mistake in principle, but a mistake in politics" The "straight" democratic papers do not say much about the case, since most of them are really anxious for the "clean sweep" to begin, and can't see why exceptions should be made in the case of a woman, the daughter of a Union soldier

A MARK OF PROGRESS

If signs do not fail large works for the reduction of base bullion will soon be set up in East Portland The lack of such works has long been a disadvantage of mining in this country. Gold and silver has been extracted from the natural ores and the baser metals which are found in company with them have been lost The proposed works would draw their supply of bullion containing these base metals from the mines of Montana, Idaho, eastern Oregon and Washington and southern Oregon, and the supply, it is said, would be sufficient for works employing a hundred or more men The general benefits of such an establishment would be considerable It would to an extent make Portland a mining centre, and would secure us a good share of reciprocal trade which now goes elsewhere

But the direct local benefit to East Portland would be even greater At least five hundred [illegible] would be added at once to its population and, too, of the very best kind of people General business would of course gain in a hundred ways. Besides, the refuse of the works would supply what is very greatly needed, a good road material and an excellent "dump" to fill in the low ground in front of the town

Every enterprise of this kind is a distinct mark in the progress of the country all the more important because we now have few industries of other than local character Every man who starts such an enterprise or puts money into it does a public service. Public spirit is what is needed We have a fine country, a growing population and large capital Combination and application of these good conditions is the necessity of the time.

From this time on there must either be an enlivened public spirit or the country must stand still, or else we must give way to the new blood coming in Money cannot be made, business leadership cannot be maintained in the old ways. It is gratifying to see our own people, men whose past success is assurance of success in the future, leading off in new and broader lines.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

On the night of the 14th of April twenty years ago President Lincoln was shot and rendered senseless, and the next morning he died without having regained consciousness The years that have lapsed since his death find the heart of the nation fuller of his noble fame than even when all that was brave, north and south, bent over his bier and wept bitterly Lowell's poetic prophecy, written at that time, has been fulfilled

Standing like a tower,
Our children shall behold his fame,
The kindly earnest, brave, foreseeing man,
New birth of our new soil, the first American.

Many men who had a glittering reputation in life leave but a fleeting memory behind them when summoned away by death, but Lincoln's fame grows in its lovely radiance with the years When he died almost everybody of decent nature in both hemispheres hastened to drop a green sprig into his grave, and has continued to bring fresh roses to it every year That blunt old soldier, Sherman, in his many published writings has never shown much tenderness except when he speaks of his beautiful boy who died while accompanying him on one of his campaigns, and when he speaks of Lincoln He waxes fairly eloquent when telling how Lincoln visited him after the first great reverse of our arms at Bull Run and asked permission to address his beaten and disconsolate brigade. The president went down the ranks on foot and with his hat off reverently shook every soldier by the hand and then spoke words such as Sherman says he never heard equaled for strong sense and lofty cheer The soldiers listened to him in solemn silence, and when he stopped, his honest face glowing with deep feeling, they crowded around him like children around a wise and affectionate father

Men rude and rough,
Pressed round to bless the words of one
Whose heart was made of simple, in [illegible] still
As [illegible] their own

Lincoln impressed Alexander H Stephens as powerfully as he did Sherman, and the great confederate in his history of the war pays a glowing tribute to him as a man of unusual moral and intellectual greatness General Grant was similarly impressed by Lincoln's virtue and humanity so were Sedgwick, Slocum, Burnside, Hooker, McDowell, Sheridan, Hancock—indeed every great soldier, whether of republican or democratic antecedents. These generals quarreled with Halleck, they would curse Stanton, but when Lincoln met them in camp or in the war office at Washington, or in the White house, they all melted in broad and generous patriotism before him Humor, courage, honesty, sincerity, wit, logic and humanity were all found in the structure of this extraordinary man's soul, and the heart of the people rushed to their lips when they called him "Father Abraham" His benignity and bravery captured and controlled all hearts.

Had Lincoln been a man of less wonderful character there might have been a rising against him at the north on the part of the political opposition, but his severe uprightness almost disarmed the northern democracy by convincing them that he had no partisan purpose, and that whatever he did was for the sake of preserving the country There were multitudes who sympathized with the rebellion scattered through the north but the democracy as a whole believed in Lincoln's sincerity of purpose. Probably neither of the prominent candidates for the presidential nomination in the Chicago convention of 1860 would have so inspired the national confidence Seward had great intellectual power, but he had not the moral power to keep the country "serene amid alarms" as Lincoln did Chase, with his reputation for ambition and cold selfishness, could not have done it. But this simple strong man, fresh from the people, without passion or vindictiveness proved his title to greatness when called to fill a great place

The anniversary of his death is as much fraught with valuable suggestion and reflection as any anniversary of our history When our ship of state came sweeping grandly into port victorious after the weary waiting of bloody years, we found, as Walt Whitman said, that "on the deck our captain lies cold, motionless and dead Garfield's fate was equally mournful, but Garfield's fame will fade as the bitterness of his fate becomes a distant memory Lincoln was a grand and complete figure before he fell, and if he had died as peacefully as Washington, his fame like that of Washington, would have grown larger and the fragrance of his memory sweeter with the onward march of years. He served his own generation according to the will of God But he left to his country an example of moral earnestness, of humanity, of patriotism, of love for "the plain people" and confidence in their impulses, and of courage to "do right as God gives us to see the right," which is worth almost as much, as a national heritage, as the service of life.

THE IMMIGRATION BOARD

The Oregon City Enterprise is quite mistaken in its statement that the Oregon Board of Immigration is "in the employ of the railroad company" An editor who imagines that it would be possible for a railroad company to bribe Messrs Chas H Dodd, H W Corbett, H B. Miller, W N Ladue and L. B. Cox, who compose the board, must have very little knowledge of these gentlemen and very poor judgment. Rather, we should think, no judgment at all. The office in this city does not send immigrants to southern Oregon or anywhere else, it simply gives all the information at its command to all new-comers who apply for it. If southern Oregon, which the Enterprise thinks specially favored, gets a large share of the immigration, it is probably due to good reasons. Southern Oregon has attractions which happen to be of a sort which immigrants are looking for It is the severe extremes of the eastern climate that send many of them here, and in the dry and mild winters and the bland summers of southern Oregon they find the conditions most grateful to them

There is no reason why anybody should be mistaken as to the character or purposes of the board It is merely a committee of citizens serving without pay, designated by the governor to do an important public service under the authority of the legislature and supported by the state. Its office is in Portland, because this is the point of arrival for immigrants. Any man knowing these facts and having any knowledge of the men forming the board, who assumes any connection with railroad interests simply writes himself down an ass.

CANADIAN PACIFIC R. R.

General Superintendent's Office,
Yale, B. C., March 28, 1885

Mr R D Pitt, Portland:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 21st inst. to hand and note the newspaper items attached. Your letter to "Oregonian" of 20th I concur in. It states matters exactly as they are. Quite a number of the men you sent up here, and whom on your list are classed as laborers and willing to work as such, but on representing themselves to me as mechanics, have been provided for at their respective trades. The man, Peter Borins, and four others, who arrived here on the 18th, are now working on water tanks at $3.50 per day. Again others whom you have sent up I have placed as foremen. As I have instructed you to send only laborers, and for which, according to your register (none others are sent), this class of men are wanted and can find work immediately upon arrival on the terms as quoted in your letter to the "Oregonian" of the 20th inst. I might state we can place all of the above class, but mechanical labor we don't want. Yours truly,
M. J. HANAY, Gen. Supt.

CANADIAN PACIFIC R. R.

Wanted immediately, by order of the contractor—Rockmen and laborers; wages from $1 75 up per day, according to work; all skilled laborers must take their chance. Board $5 per week; good accommodation, certain work for at least 1000 men; half fare provided from Portland to Port Hammond, first station on the Canadian P. R. R. Men must register on or before every Friday and Tuesday at No. 9 Washington street.

R. D. PITT, Notary Public and Commissioner of Deeds for States and Territories, Agent for A. Onderdonk, Yale B C.

"The Portland Amateur Dramatic Club" have at the request of their many friends and patrons consented to repeat the great temperance drama, "The Last Leaf," which met with such great success at their hall on Wednesday last. A splendid programme will be presented and those wishing to spend a pleasant evening cannot do better than witness this amusing and instructive play. The concert will be followed by a dance, for those who wish to remain, for which the services of a splendid band have been engaged. Performance to take place at Liebig's Hall, corner Third and Alder, on Wednesday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock sharp.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A JOURNAL ON WHEELS.—Mr. E. V. Smalley announces in the April number of the Northwest that he will put a considerable part of his editorial establishment on wheels for a journey of business and observation to the Pacific coast. Through the kindness of T. F. Oakes, vice president and general manager of the Northern Pacific, he shall have a special car, not a palace coach, but a comfortable working car, with room enough for a desk for the business manager, a big drawing board for the special artist, and a table for the editor to read the exchanges and make "copy" for the printers at home. In this car the party will live and labor during the entire journey. They will stop a day or two at every important town between Lake Superior and Puget sound to take note of new settlements and new enterprises, and of growth and progress generally. On this side of the Rockies, stops will be made as follows: Missoula, Spokane Falls, Cheney, Sprague, Walla Walla, North Yakima, The Dalles, Portland and Tacoma. Mr Smalley says: "We shall want, at every point, information about the resources and recent development of the country, and for this we shall depend upon the courtesy of the citizens of the towns we visit. Give us facts. No matter about fine writing, we will put the matter in shape for printing. Avoid booming rhetoric, everybody is tired of it. Accurate statements about soil, climate, productions, good openings for farmers and business men, for cattlemen, sheepmen and miners, growth of towns and country, new enterprises and natural resources waiting development, is what we want."

THE PACIFIC COAST SIGNAL SERVICE.—Lieut Robert Craig, chief of the San Francisco branch of the United States signal office, has issued a circular of information, from which a few facts regarding the new coast service are gathered. Reports are telegraphed the office at 4 A. M., 12 M. and 8 P. M., Pacific time, from all coast stations. The data is quickly entered upon charts, when a synopsis for the past twenty four hours and indications for the next twenty-four hours will be issued twice daily, at 2 and 10 P. M., for the papers. When observations indicate the approach of storms dangerous to shipping, the stations at Port Angeles, Olympia, Fort Canby, Astoria, Portland, San Diego and San Francisco will hoist the cautionary signal flag—red flag with black square in center. Telegrams will also be sent to other stations giving warning of the approaching storm. The districts for which the indications will be issued are the north Pacific, which includes those portions of Washington territory and Oregon west of the Cascade range; the middle Pacific, that portion of California west of the Sierra Nevada mountains, and from about Monterey and Fresno northward; the south Pacific, that portion of California south of Monterey and Fresno and west of the Sierra Nevada mountains and San Bernardino mountain ranges.

DON'T FOOL WITH ELECTRICITY.—For some occult reason one or another of the electric lamps along the streets occasionally fails to work, and hangs black and rayless. Some people think they know how to remedy this fault in the lamp, claiming that all that is needed is to poke the concern and shake it a little. A gentleman tried this plan on one of these lamps last night, and he is alive and hearty to-day. Now it is a well known fact that every man and some women know how to poke a fire or run a newspaper, but as this is merely an experimental era in the history of lighting by electricity, it is not to be presumed that every one knows how to poke activity into an electric lamp, and the chances are that some one in trying it will get knocked into the middle of the next century, and will know whether England and Russia went to war, and how the crops turned out in Oregon, and what price wheat, wool and salmon brought this season, before THE OREGONIAN gets a chance to publish these interesting news items. Poke a lion in his den or a skunk in a stump, or take the cubs from a she-bear, or do any other unfounded fool thing except poke an electric lamp. There are experts in this line, and if any one is to be victimized let it be an expert.

ASK A GUARDIAN FOR THEIR FATHER.—The six sons and daughters of Judge Wm Strong have united in signing a petition to the county court, which was filed yesterday, asking that their father be declared non compos mentis, or liable to become so, if he continues to have upon his mind the strain of caring for his own property. They fear that age has dimmed his eye and rendered his perception less acute, and that someone, ignorant of his condition or so unscrupulous as to take advantage of it, will purchase his property, of which he has considerable, at much less than its real value, and it will therefore be dissipated, leaving their poor old father without any means of support. Hence as a conclusion to their petition, they ask that the court by due process of law appoint a guardian to lift up the burden of business cares from the mind of their father, to the end that his life may be prolonged and that his property, the prop of his declining years, shall not be all spent before he dies. Judge Strong is aware of the foregoing interest taken in his behalf by his children, and is ready to show that he is quite capable of taking care of his own property. He has not yet decided whether he will file a counter petition.

ENTIRELY TOO NEGLIGENT.—There is a very general opinion that the coal oil lamps on the streets are not turned up high enough to produce the best possible results. Several councilmen are of this opinion and one has expressed his intention of introducing a resolution at the council meeting this evening making it the duty of policemen to turn up lamps on their beats which are not already turned up far enough. This may be a good scheme but is not likely to prove satisfactory either to the contractor or to the policemen who will thus be shouldered with work and responsibility for which the contractor is paid. The lamplighter should light and adjust his lamps properly. The fact that if a lamp is not turned up very high it does not use so much oil may have something to do with the matter. The facts in regard to coal oil lamps are just as were stated in these columns some time since. A coal oil lamp will give a very good light if it is properly trimmed and adjusted, but this is a matter which requires more time and care than contractors seem inclined to give, but which they should be forced to give.

TOOK A SHEER OVERBOARD.—The little steamer Dolly plies between Starkweather's ranch, near the mouth of the Clackamas, and this city, bringing a cargo of milk each trip. Some fishermen have a lot of seines set in the eddies along the Willamette, near the Clackamas. A morning or two since, two men who had been looking after these salmon nets took passage for this city on the Dolly. There was a little skiff towing behind and Tim Mayhew, one of the passengers, took a fancy to ride in the skiff. So he pulled it up to the quarter and jumped in. After riding a while he thought he would like to get back on board the steamboat again, so he got on the bow of the skiff, and grasping the painter, pulled the skiff up near the steamboat, when, owing to the bow of the skiff being loaded down by his weight, it yawed suddenly and Mayhew holding on to the painter was dragged overboard. The rate at which he was dragged through the water almost buried him and rendered it impossible for him to call for help. He was accidentally discovered and rescued in time to prevent him from furnishing a fatal accident item.

WEBFOOT WAR SENTIMENT.—The great topic of the day is the war which is imminent between England and Russia. Both those powerful nations appear to be spoiling for a fight, but they don't want the music to start up half as bad as some other people or they would have been at it hammer and tongs long before this. There is no one pulling at John Bull's coat tail nor tugging at the abbreviated caudal appendage of the Russian bear to keep these two stout-winded parties apart, but they seem to need a great deal of provocation to bring them up to the sticking point. "My voice is still for war" is the cry of nearly every [illegible] in this section. All we want to make us happy is a few timely showers and a rattling mill between the English and Russians and as many of their neighbors as want [illegible] in the [illegible]. At our distance we can cry havoc, and see the dogs of war turned loose in Afghanistan with great impunity. The general sentiment is, give the boys a fair field and no favor, and let the best man win.

HERDIC CHARIOTS.—An old subscriber writes: "A long time ago I saw in THE DAILY OREGONIAN an account of the arrival of some Herdic chariots at Portland, and as far as I know nothing has been done with them. If they should still be in Portland I would suggest that it might be profitable to run them at a low rate of fare between East Portland and Milwaukie, as the protected railroad between those places seems to have collapsed." The last heard from the chariots they were sheltered in [illegible] stables of the Transcontinental street railway company. Probably if "Old Subscriber" has the money to put up, he can buy them at cost and run them over the route suggested [illegible] the fare as low as he wants to.

ASSAULTED WITH VARIOUS WEAPONS.—Charles Paulson, Clarence F Littlepage and George W Renfrew have been indicted by the grand jury for an assault with a dangerous weapon committed on the person of one Frederick on the 8th of February. It is stated in the indictments that the weapons used were a large club, revolving pistol and a fish plate.

TALKING STEAMBOAT CONNECTION.—The latest rumor in Boston about Oregon railways, and it has found its way into the Advertiser, is that the Northern Pacific people are seriously contemplating putting a line of steamers on the Columbia river between Wallula Junction and Portland, with portages at The Dalles and the Cascades, in other words, re-establishing the old Oregon Steam Navigation Company. According to the Advertiser's New York correspondent, the line, if put in operation, is to be used principally for freight traffic. This will be news out here, and probably the O. R. & N. people will wonder where room and right of way around the Cascades is to be obtained by the Northern Pacific. Of course, it will be no trouble to get a road on the territory side of the Dalles, and good steamboats can be built in Oregon at short notice. Construction of the proposed line would make things lively for a while, and every one on general principles would be glad to see the opposition develop, but it looks to a man up a tree as if the Northern Pacific was running a bluff to secure better terms for a lease, and not a very big bluff, either.

SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS COMMISSION.—A suit which is liable to occupy several days in trial, began yesterday in department No. 1 of the state circuit court before Judge Smith and a jury. This is the case of J. H. Fisk vs D. V. B. Henarie and others. The action is brought for the sum of $60,000, alleged to be due as commissions for negotiating the sale of a large tract of land. The complaint sets up that plaintiff made a contract with the defendants to sell for them the property known as the Dalles military road grant, consisting of 600,000 acres for $1 per acre. A purchaser was secured in the firm of Lee, Paine & Co. of New York, but the defendants refused to sell as agreed. The plaintiff claims that having fulfilled his part of the contract he is entitled to his commission of 10 per cent. The large amount of money involved has brought the best legal talent in the state to the contest, and every point of law that may arise will be carefully considered.

DEPARTMENT ENCAMPMENT G. A. R.—About twenty members of the Department Encampment G. A. R., for Washington territory, arrived from the Sound last evening, which with the delegates that had already arrived here, will make quite a large representation from that region. Governor Squire also arrived here at the same time, and leaves for Vancouver this morning on a visit to that city, and will probably meet the people of Vancouver to-day. The delegates and officers of the Department Encampment leave at 8 o'clock this morning for Vancouver, and the encampment will be opened at 10 A. M., and will probably remain in session to-morrow and part of Thursday. Among the officers who arrived last evening were Inspector General Latimer, G. W. Tibbetts, A. D. C., and Past Dept. Com. Geo. D. Hill of Seattle, Chief Mustering Officer I. T. Taylor, and Junior Vice Dept. Com. C. H. Stone of Tacoma, and W. H. Roberts, member of the council of administration, of Olympia.

TRADING STATION DESTROYED.—At 1 o'clock Friday afternoon a fire occurred at Fir, better known as Mann's Landing, on Skagit river, which destroyed every building in the place, with the exception of a small residence occupied by a man named Sanstrom. The heaviest loss falls on Mr C H Mann, townsite proprietor, who lost a store and warehouse, containing a stock of goods valued at $10,000, on which there was no insurance. A hotel owned and kept by M Anderson, valued at $1500, containing furniture and bar fixtures worth in the neighborhood of $500, proved a total loss, as did also the Morling house, in which Hanson & Cregstad's saloon is situated. There is said to have been a small insurance on one of the hotels. Fir was a little trading station and loggers' headquarters, a few miles from the mouth of the Skagit river, where the people in that vicinity receive their mail and supplies. The origin of the fire is not known.

PREPARING TO IMPROVE THE PLAZAS.—Plans have been prepared by the city surveyor for the improvement of the plazas. The plan for the square in front of the court house includes a circle in the center, in which it is probable that the Skidmore fountain will be erected, with broad paths leading to it from each corner, and other paths running around the center parallel with the sides, the whole being macadamized. The broad paths leading from the corners will have a row of trees in the middle. A number of rustic seats will be placed around under the trees. The plans were submitted to the council committee on streets and public property, who have ordered estimates of the cost prepared. The proposed improvement, if carried out, will make the plaza a very pretty place, but it is doubtful whether the removal of the fences will prove satisfactory.

AND THE RAT LICKED.—A wholesale cigar dealer on Front street, whose name ends with inski, lately procured at great expense a black and tan rat terrier, a regular thoroughbred which was said to be able to kill rats faster than he could wink. An attache of another cigar house on North Front street doubted the dog's capacity for slaughtering rodents, and a dispute arose over the matter. The down town man at length offered to bet a box of cigars that the dog could not kill a rat. The bet was at once taken, and the dog escorted to Joe Taylor's rat killing parlors, where the pit was pitched and the dog and a rat introduced to each other therein. In less time than it takes to tell it that rat had thrown the dog down and scared him so badly that he will never be able to look a rat in the face again. It is not safe to bet on a dog till he has been tried.

NORTHERN PACIFIC FINANCES.—In a recent interview, Secretary Samuel Wilkinson of the Northern Pacific road, said: "There cannot possibly be a meeting of the directors to take action on the Oregon lease until Thursday, April 3d, and, although committees may meet in the meantime, nothing pertaining to the lease can be done or even formally discussed." The officers deny that the company is negotiating for a loan, and say that the earnings will meet the fixed charges, which are not nearly one-half what they have been represented. They say that the company does not owe a dollar of unfunded debt which it has not cash or cash receivable to meet, and that every dollar of money due to meet fixed charges is in bank.

MORE DRIVES IN THE PARK.—An addition is to be made to the drive in the city park. It will be about half a mile in length, running from near the spring up to the highest point of the park, in the northwest corner, where a circle will be made. This point will afford a finer view of the city than is now obtainable from any point in the road already built. The number of people visiting the park in carriages on Sunday is so great that the roadway does not allow scope for fast driving. A pathway will soon be constructed to the top of the hill by which pedestrians can reach that point without suffering from dust raised by the vehicles on the roadway. The distance by the path will also be much less than by the road.

IF WANTED IT MUST BE SOUGHT.—Mr. Herbert S. Bradley returned a few days ago from an extended trip to the Wood River country, where he made some observations from a business standpoint. He says Caldwell and Shoshone are the prospective towns of that country at present, and he also intimates that if Portland merchants expect to get the trade of that section they must make some effort to secure it, by personal application or other inducement. The freight on all staple articles is 1½ cents per hundred cheaper from Portland than from eastern points, and there is no good reason why Portland should not have all of this trade.

BALL PLAYING IN THE STREETS.—There is an ordinance against playing ball on the streets of the city, but just at the present time it is not enforced. Nearly every evening on almost every residence street boys and young men engage in the pastime of "tossing ball" and occasionally play "one old cat" or "knock up flies," much to the annoyance and danger of passers-by. Broken windows are frequent and occasionally a street lamp suffers, while many a driver has had hard work to check his frightened horse. Assuredly the ordinance against ball playing in the streets should be enforced.

[illegible] YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.—John Thompson and E. C. Darnell, the Wasco county cowboys who were tried and convicted of horse stealing, were brought up before Judge Stearns yesterday for sentence. The jury had recommended them to the mercy of the court, and accordingly each received a sentence of [illegible] years in the penitentiary at hard labor. Judge Stearns evidently does not believe in trifling with the penalties prescribed by the laws, and because a thief who makes thieving a business happens to be young, it is no reason why he shall escape a just and severe punishment.

FULL GRASS.—A sheaf of perennial rye-grass six feet in height and in blossom, has been received at the board of immigration rooms from Will H. Perry of Independence. When it is remembered that immigrants arriving here from the east could see no green blade of grass in the country they left, this sort of growth must make them expect to hear the farmers yelling at them when they go out in the country, "Keep out of that tall grass."

SHE'S THE KIND.—A woman writing from Allegan county, Michigan, asks for maps of Oregon and Washington. She also wants newspapers. She says she is coming to Oregon this year, or as soon as she can sell her property. "I am a widow," she says, "and will run the risk of finding a man who will work my farm. If I can't, I will work it myself."

THOUGHT THE OLD LICENSE WOULD DO.—G. A. Brown of Coquille City was brought to Portland to answer to a charge of selling liquor without a government license. Upon examination it transpired that he had bought a saloon of another man and began at once to retail out the stock of liquors without knowing that the old license was not transferred to him by the mere act of buying the place. The explanation of Mr Brown was deemed satisfactory, and upon his taking out a new license from the internal revenue office he was released from custody.

PROSPECT FOR RAIN.—Last night at 5 o'clock the weather along the lines of the O. R. & N. Co. in eastern Oregon and Washington was cloudy, and indicated rain. At Bonneville there was a light mist. From the Cascades to Umatilla there was a strong up stream wind. At Walla Walla the weather was very cloudy, with strong south wind, with every indication of a [illegible] before midnight. In the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue river valleys, the weather was [illegible] partly cloudy, and no rain.

BOTANIC RAMBLES.—Dr. Paul Semler has returned from a two weeks' trip to southern Oregon. The doctor is a practical botanist and says that the Rogue river valley is the most beautiful country he has ever seen. He found acres and acres of wild pennyroyal along the foothills and thinks the manufacture of pennyroyal oil might be carried on there profitably. He found several other useful plants in large quantities and his botanical rambles afforded him much pleasure.

JUDGMENTS BY DEFAULT.—Samuel Coulter and A. H. Johnson each took judgment by default yesterday in department No. 1 of the state circuit court against Charlotte Cooper and others for the sums of $[illegible] and $216 08 respectively. The court also granted an order for the sale of the attached property of the defendant to satisfy the judgment in each case.

BURGLARY.—While the family of Edward P. Hodnett, 183 Eleventh street, were away from home Monday afternoon, burglars entered the house through the pantry window and ransacked the drawers, closets, etc. They made a hearty meal from the cupboard and carried off considerable jewelry and silverware. There is no clue to the thieves.

EXCURSION.—Thursday evening Vancouverites can attend the G. A. R. and theatre, as the Lurline will come over leaving at 6 15 P. M., and returning at 11 40.

BRIEF MENTION

A motion to dismiss the suit of Brand vs Cooper was argued before Judge Stearns yesterday and submitted.

G. W. Riley has brought suit against C. P. Bacon to recover $2[illegible] 65, wages for work performed and yet unpaid.

The tide of immigration increaseth. Four carloads—180—intending settlers will arrive to-day over the Northern Pacific.

The house of J. E. Miller at Eddy Point, Oregon, near Knappa, burned on the 10th, inst., loss $1000. No insurance.

Wholesale business houses generally will be closed from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. to-day, out of respect to the late M. S. Burrell.

Sheriff Jordan was busy yesterday collecting the taxes of the Chinese merchants, which, taken altogether, makes quite a sum.

Otto Harding has been arrested upon complaint of John B. Gross, charged with being about to leave the state without paying his debts.

J. B. Putnam waived preliminary examination at Oregon City yesterday on the charge of criminal libel, and gave bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

The monthly meeting of the guild of St. Stephen's chapel will be held this afternoon at half past two o'clock in the guild room. Important business.

The annual meeting of the Oregon and California railroad company was held yesterday. No business was transacted and the meeting adjourned for one month.

A lot of tools stolen from a building adjoining the St. Charles hotel were recovered yesterday in a Front street pawn-shop, where they had been left by a Chinaman. The thief has not been caught.

James Ford, who was brought down from eastern Oregon in charge of a deputy United States marshal, accused of selling liquor to Indians, had an examination yesterday morning before Commissioner Lamson and was held for trial.

John Wolfe, a German laborer, was examined by County Judge Moreland and Drs. Saylor and Joseph yesterday and pronounced insane. His mania is of a singular nature. He imagines he has a wife and children, and is much worried about them, and is also troubled about religion.

A slight unpleasantness, the result of a misunderstanding, took place at the National hotel yesterday morning. It seems that one Hemphill was talking with a man from Monticello, when Miller, the clerk of the hotel, came by, and somehow a row took place in which Miller was roughly handled by the man from Monticello. No arrests.

Judge Andrews of the New York supreme court has vacated the injunction that restrained the Oregon & California and the Farmers Loan & Trust company from issuing bonds in excess of the $2,810,000 already out, because it was shown that 151 miles of road have been built, and the company had a right to bond at the rate of $10,000 a mile.

PERSONAL

W. S. McCready returned from the east a few days ago.

Lieutenant James W. Allison has been relieved from duty as acting aid-de-camp to General Miles.

Lieutenant J. M. Arrasmith of Fort Coeur d'Alene is at the Holton house and will remain till Thursday.

Dr. J. M. Fox has been elected secretary of the Oregon Improvement company, vice Joseph Simon, resigned.

The engagement of Miss Bessie Biles, daughter of J. J. Biles of this city, and Dr Edward Bailey, son of Professor Bailey of Eugene, is announced.

Mr William Morton, who has been confined to his bed for the past few weeks from the effects of a severe cold, is improving. He was down stairs yesterday for the first time since he was taken sick, and hopes soon to be able to attend to business.

HALIBUT.—In the absence of smelt we must put up with halibut as the next best thing. Jennings, corner Fifth and Washington streets, was displaying some elegant specimens of these choice fish last evening.

THE OLD IMMIGRATION BOARD.

Statement of the Work Accomplished in Three and a Half Months.

Following is the report of the Oregon immigration board made to the board of trade Monday night last:

Your committee, appointed in November last, to organize and operate a board of immigration, in asking for discharge, beg to submit the appended final report. The reports of the secretary, made from time to time since the beginning of our labors, have kept you informed of the general working of the board, and it only remains for your committee to offer the following recapitulation of the work accomplished during the 105 days of the existence of the organization:

Personal applications	[illegible]
for improved farms	[illegible]
for timber lands	[illegible]
for work	[illegible]
Applicants provided work	[illegible]
Applications on file	[illegible]
Round trip tickets issued since Jan 1	[illegible]
Locators tickets issued since Jan 1	[illegible]
Cases where secretary has positive knowledge of purchases by immigrants	[illegible]
Amount involved in these purchases	$1[illegible] 500
Amount brought by immigrants as ascertained directly or indirectly by sec'y	$[illegible] 000
Farms for rent taken by immigrants	[illegible]
Farms on record March 1	[illegible]
Unimproved tracts	[illegible]
Farms to rent	[illegible]
Average price per acre asked for improved farms	$[illegible]
Such lands within ten miles of Portland	[illegible]
Highest price asked	[illegible]
Lowest	[illegible]
Average age of immigrants	[illegible]
Married	[illegible]
Farmers	[illegible]
American born	[illegible] per ct
From western states	[illegible] per ct
Letters of inquiry received direct	[illegible]
from [illegible]	[illegible]

railways	[illegible]
Allen at N Orleans	10 [illegible]
on hand	[illegible]
from counties	[illegible]
Number of counties furnishing printed matter for distribution	[illegible]

There are on file in the rooms of the board thirty-eight newspapers, representing all the counties in the state.

During the past few weeks the contributions to the specimen rooms have been many and valuable. For the immigrant this is one of the most valuable and interesting.

In view of the fact that some time elapsed before the existence and object of the board of immigration became generally known and that a heavy storm prevailed here for several weeks about the first of the year, greatly obstructing travel and mail service, it may honestly be said that the entire work of the organization has been done since the first of February.

Taking into consideration the limited sum at the disposal of the committee, and the difficulties attending the organization of an immigration board, to say nothing of the opposing influences that from the start have been active and forceful, the work accomplished has certainly exceeded the anticipations of the most sanguine, and those most interested in the work. As the report of the secretary shows, the board has been the means of inducing a large and valuable class of immigrants to find homes in Oregon, and, in the somewhat embarrassed condition of many of the large land holders, these new comers have proved friends indeed.

During the existence of the board the fact has developed that most of our Oregon farmers have come to the conclusion that they have been cultivating too much land with too small a force, and that the time has come for them to concentrate their strength and ability on fewer acres, and raise larger crops by a better tillage.

On the last day of March your committee held its final meeting, audited the accounts for the preceding month and made a transfer of the books, maps, stationery and office fixtures to the state board of immigration, of which the members of your committee have been appointed commissioners. Your committee feels justified in saying that the work accomplished has made a good foundation for the future labors of the state board, and that through the efforts of the former, the latter enters upon its work under the most favorable circumstances. Having performed the duties imposed by the appointment, your committee adjourned sine die and ask to be discharged.

THE EAST SIDE.

THE CHARGE OF LIBEL.

The examination of the charge of libel against Dr J. M. McCoy, preferred by Mrs. Dr Sarepta Smith, the aggrieved party, occurred before Justice Coleman yesterday. Ira Jones appeared for the complainant, C. Taylor for the defendant and W. T. Burney for the state. The demurrer setting up the insufficiency of the complaint and the non jurisdiction of the court was overruled and the examination was proceeded with. The witnesses for the prosecution, besides the informant and her husband, Dr S. Smith, were F. O. McCown and D. C. Latourette of Oregon City, and Mrs. A. E. Frush, Mrs. Emma Hersha and B. W. Thomas of East Portland, for the defense, besides the accused, Mrs. C. Grimes of Albina and W. F. Hall, Frank Bridley, A. W. Atterbury and W. Overlin of East Portland. Mrs. J. H. Jackson of The Dalles was subpenaed for the prosecution, but failed to appear. Rev. [illegible] H. Hobart, pastor of the Baptist church, was also wanted, but could not be found. The substance of the letter written by the defendant to the Baptist church at Oregon City, upon which the charge of libel is based has already been published. The letter, it appeared from the testimony, though written by the defendant upon his own responsibility, was based upon an affidavit secured by the Baptist church, in which Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Jackson certified to Mrs. Smith offering to sell them instruments to procure abortion, and stating that she had previously sold them to others. The prosecution proposed to show that the parties named signed the affidavit without being fully aware of the nature of the contents, and that the instruments referred to by Mrs. Smith were for a more harmless purpose, and one not criminal. Mrs. Grimes testified to this effect, but Mrs Jackson, as stated, was not present to speak for herself. The trouble originated with the last-named person, who wrote a letter to Mr. Atterbury, a relative, making charges against Mrs. Smith of the nature indicated, and with this as a starter, an investigation was instituted, the affidavit referred to secured and the accused expelled the East Portland church. Mrs. Smith had meantime joined the Oregon City church by means of a letter previously received from the East Portland church, and upon the representations made by Dr. McCoy this letter was returned to her and she was remanded back to the church in East Portland. Mrs. Smith thereupon requested a trial by the church in this city, but this being denied she seeks redress and vindication by the present action. The case opened at 9 30 A. M., and it was nearly 4 P. M. before the examination of witnesses closed. Court then adjourned to 9 30 this morning, when counsel will make their arguments and submit the case. The interest taken in the case was indicated by the attendance yesterday, the courtroom being crowded "inside and out."

NOTES

Thos. Parrott and Frank Buchtel brought in eleven geese from the slough yesterday. Others will try their luck to-day.

Mollie Thayer, after pleading not guilty to the charge of selling liquor without a license and giving bonds for her appearance for trial yesterday, changed her mind, and, returning to the court, pleaded guilty and was fined $50.

Concerning the matter of a "cow law," the new charter is brief and to the point, to-wit: "Domestic animals shall not be allowed to run at large within the limits of the city of East Portland." Consequently, the city would be responsible for any damage arising from the non-enforcement of this law.

M. H. N. Taylor, one of the pioneer hotel men of Portland, who has for the past year occupied the position of chief clerk at the Merchant hotel, has severed his connection with that house to take charge of the National hotel, corner of Front and Yamhill streets, as its general manager. Mr. Taylor is well known to the traveling public on the Pacific coast as a competent and genial host, having been engaged in the business here for the past thirteen years. The National is an old and popular house, long recognized as the best one dollar a day house in this part of the country, and it will be the aim of the management to maintain and improve upon this reputation. Mr. Taylor will be assisted in the management of the National by George C. Sears and Frank Read, formerly connected with the house. The Merchant continues under the management of Messrs. Kellogg & Davis.

H. F. Gullixson & Co. will positively close out business on or before May 1st. Carpets, oil cloths, rugs, mats, at actual cost.

SALEM NOTES.

SALEM, April 14.

Dr. John Riggs of your city is visiting friends in Salem.

The little folks are already finding ripe wild strawberries in this vicinity.

Dan Morris Sullivan's troupe will appear at Reed's opera house this evening.

Prof. Gregg, secretary of the state agricultural society, has gone to Oysterville on a visit.

Mrs. Dr. L. S. Skiff has gone to Mehama to visit her parents, her father, A. D. Gardner, Sr., being quite ill.

Copious showers have within the past day or two greatly refreshed vegetation in this part of the Willamette valley.

Prof. McElroy of this city is perfecting plans for a school teachers' excursion to Chicago some time during the ensuing summer.

Lieutenant J. M. Arrasmith of Fort Coeur d'Alene, together with two guards, arrived here last evening, having in charge two soldiers under a five and seven years' sentence to the Oregon penitentiary for larceny, who were turned over to the authorities.

Rev. S. B. Downing of Drakesville, Iowa, is out here looking at the country and visiting his brothers, who reside in this county.

J. Friedman of Rockford, Ill., is visiting his brother, S. Friedman of this city, and expresses himself as delighted with our country and climate.

Mr. Russell of Marion was attacked by a mad dog on Saturday last. Heavy boots alone saved him from being bitten. The animal was killed shortly afterward.

The ladies of the Episcopal church are watching the clouds very closely, in anticipation of their picnic excursion, announced to come off at Independence on Thursday.

The ladies of the Congregational church will entertain their friends to-morrow (Wednesday) evening with a literary entertainment, interspersed with ice cream and other refreshments.

Chief Engineer Haas has called a meeting of the fire department of this city for to-morrow evening to make arrangements for attending the forthcoming firemen's association and tournament at Astoria.

The members of Capital hose team of this city are meeting with splendid success in the sale of tickets for their forthcoming entertainment to raise funds towards bearing their expenses incidental to their trip to Astoria in June next.

The board of trade and the business men of Salem held a meeting at the council chamber on Saturday evening last to devise ways and means for securing for Marion county a just ratio of the immigration now coming into the state. Several plans were proposed and brief addresses made by John H. Albert, W. N. Ladd, John G. Wright, Major George Williams, M. L. Chamberlin, Leo Willis, F. N. Gilbert, R. J. Hendricks, Captain J. J. Briggs, Dr. Warriner and others, which resulted in the appointment of a committee to wait upon our county court, requesting their co-operation, and also of one to canvass the city for funds, and recommended the selection of some suitable person to make his headquarters in Portland and upon the arrival of immigrant trains to interview new-comers and furnish them with information concerning the resources of our county. This committee is to report this evening.

INCORPORATIONS.

The following articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state: The Thistle Packing Company, of Astoria. Incorporators, S. Elmore, J. J. Barclay, Geo. W. Sanborn and C. W. Fulton; capital stock, $50,000.

The Paisley Jockey Club of Paisley, Oregon; incorporators, C. E. Randall, George W. Hayes, Jerome Gaylord, J. P. Cochran and John Henderson.

FOR PROHIBITION BY LAW

PORTLAND, April 13, 1885.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I would like to make a few remarks on your leading article to-day, "Light out of Darkness." You differ with many of our ablest temperance thinkers and workers in believing that we should confine our efforts to cutting off the demand for alcoholic drinks and not also be persistent in trying to stop the supply. The true and sensible prohibitionist is laboring zealously for both. Your plan of licensing men to sell the poison drinks and so increasing the demand by offering the supply in the most attractive way, riveting the chains of an abnormal appetite on those who have been led to drinking by the presence of the legalized temptation and the consequent prevalence of drinking customs, and then content ourselves with trying to reform a few by temperance societies and to train the young to resist the fashionable and customary habit of indulging in alcoholic beverages has been tried till the people are tired of the slow and unsatisfactory process. They say we are willing to keep on educating in the family, urge it in the school, bring to bear in favor of it the manifold forces of society, press it upon the young in the name of science, of morality, of duty, of religion, make the young know that alcohol is a poison, insist that drinking usages shall be held disreputable, as you say. But we want to help the young that we are thus trying to educate by having the state and nation refuse to sell permissions to men to do this disreputable thing, and to sell what they know and the government knows and we are trying to make the young know is a poison. Surely the editor of THE OREGONIAN will not pretend that where the permission to sell is withheld there are more young people learning to drink and that where there are multiplied temptations there are less recruits to the ranks of drinkers. But unless that is so the supplying of facilities and temptations to drink does create the demand, or the fact of those who had not the appetite and would not have gone out of their way to seek strong drink. Is it not because you think that high license would lessen the supply of drinking places and so lessen the growing demand for drink wherever drinking shops are, that you advocate high license—which is to a degree prohibitive in your belief, or would possess no claims to praise or advocacy?

Dr. Theodore Cuyler, whom you quote, has been a lifelong moral suasionist and has only recently come out for prohibition and a third party to enforce it because forced to the conclusion that we never will do much towards eradicating the evils of drunkenness by doctoring the symptoms and effects and letting the cause go on without attention. A doctor would give remedies to a family down with typhoid fever, but while doing so he would surely seek and stop the cause, be it poisoned and foul water, poisoned milk, poisoned meat or poisoned air and the poison arising from defective drainage. Dr. Cuyler, I apprehend, in the address from which you quote him is not denouncing prohibition, but simply sounding the warning not to prohibitionists not to be satisfied with legal prohibition, but also to educate the masses on the temperance question and to use all moral suasion and religious forces too. He is like railway men, building at both ends till the line meets and is complete.

While we are trying the experiment of state prohibition is it fair for a leading paper to continually cry out "It's no good; it's bound to be a failure; it will never succeed," and persistently deny [illegible] so far as the officers will enforce it and public sentiment supports them it is successful [illegible] in Maine, Iowa and Kansas. You [illegible] whisky [illegible] Now, when [illegible] But [illegible] of [illegible] that in other places the law works well. J. H. Lamoreux writes to Rev. C. B. Smith, who says as you do that prohibition don't prohibit. "If you honestly believe that prohibition cannot prohibit, just come to Otsego, a village of 1,000 inhabitants, and every officer a prohibitionist, and sell a glass of whisky, and as one of the justices of peace for Allegan county I will guarantee you a place where you will stay for some time unless your whisky friends come to your relief with good and sufficient bail."

And from a Kansas brewer comes this testimony: "I have invested over $10,000 in my brewery, and I don't believe I could get $500 for it on account of this prohibition law. I have $10,000 worth of beer in my vaults and I am not allowed to sell it. [illegible] You have no idea how our people are upset by the new law. And the brewers' papers are frantically urging whisky sellers to oppose prohibitory legislation or their trade is doomed in the near future, judging the future by the present."

[illegible] the forebodings [illegible] prohibition [illegible] in their [illegible] fears than your [illegible] of prohibitory laws and prophesying their failure.

One thing I had forgotten. How would it do to [illegible] demand for the drug for smoking and then impress upon [illegible] and content ourselves with [illegible] moral and [illegible] from what the [illegible] legitimate business [illegible] the selling of [illegible] which [illegible] years ago.

THE STAGE.

The New Market has started a big boom in the McKee Rankin engagement, and last night's house was crowded. No company (not even excepting the Madison Square combination in Hazel Kirke) which has visited Portland ever won so hearty recognition as the several artists now playing "'49," and the tribute of unqualified praise comes alike from people who seek only to be agreeably entertained for three hours, and from veteran play goers who are satisfied only with that which closely approaches perfection. The play of "'49" and the players are the town talk.

The box sheet for Bessie Louise King's benefit opens at Sanborn, Vail & Co.'s (for C. G. Morse's) at 8 o'clock this morning. Tickets already sold are exchangeable for reserved seats without extra charge.

Notwithstanding the other attractions in the city "Hearts of Oak" drew a good house at the Tivoli last night. It is a charming play well presented. It will be repeated to-night.

The Winston-Bell benefit at the Casino to-night. To-morrow night last performance of "The Bohemian Girl."

Liverpool cables quote Columbia river salmon at [illegible] per case. This is an advance of about 4s over values of less than one month ago. Several causes have contributed to this latter turn, about the first being the loss of 52 000 cases by the Kirkwood. The depression of the past year has promised to lessen the output this season, and with new markets being thrown open less of the product is expected to reach England. British dealers have been working with light stocks for some time. So far the Columbia canners have canned little having expressed a determination to await a free run which May is expected to bring. There is also some dissatisfaction as to the prices offered for fish. Canners have said they will not pay the high prices paid last year and fishermen say there is no profit at 50 to 65c per fish. No contracts of importance have been reported made although canners have made offers to contract without leading to actual business.

Also 10 620 ctls wheat, 1 [illegible] bbls flour 222 ctls oats 8580 lbs wool, 10,208 lbs hides from the eastern section.

FREIGHTS—San Francisco advices report a firmer market, although there are no actual transactions to indicate an advance. That market is now quoted very close to our own, 40s being asked for iron there and 40s being about the best obtainable figure here. The great difficulty in securing cargo stuff works against new business. The Edward Percy arrived in to-day under prior charter and will be loaded by C Caesar & Co.

WHEAT—The local market is difficult to report. A few sellers have made their appearance but have expressed no desire to sell coming here for the purpose of securing information on which to operate in the interior. Buyers, as a rule will make no offer except the wheat be in sight or it is believed the holder will sell, and as none have been found who would sell no offers are out. Supplies are now down so low that quotations have become of less interest, those operators who are constantly in the market keeping close run of the situation. To-day's public cables quote a higher spot market with no actual change in cargoes. Private cables give nothing new as from yesterday. A cargo of valley Oregon afloat sold recently at 39s but it is claimed 40s could now be had for a similar lot. A cargo is in sight for the Edward Percy.

FLOUR—Millers are talking of another advance of 25c within the next two days. Liberal orders are being received in anticipation of increased values.

POTATOES—Receipts free and offerings large, but dealing is obstructed by lack of freight room. Quote 45c for Garnet Chiles.

CHICKENS—Steady at $4@5

EGGS—Receipts larger and market weaker at 12c

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK April 14—Governments, quiet with an advance of ⅛ in 4s and 4½s and a decline of ⅛ in 3s. There was a fairly well distributed business in railway bonds, none of which were active except Erie twos and West Shore ones and they only in the early part of the day. Total sales were $819,000, a decrease from yesterday of $53,000. Prices this evening are generally higher than they closed yesterday.

Stocks remained dull and featureless. There were few stocks to-day which fluctuated as much as 1 per cent., and total transactions were only 160 955 shares. First prices were generally at or a shade above closing quotations last evening but they were followed immediately by a slight decline and extreme dullness which continued with only slight fluctuations until 2 o clock. In the last hour some activity was infused into a few stocks, especially Pacific Mail, Grangers Vanderbilts and Lackawanna, and the market finally closed somewhat feverish at prices that are pretty evenly divided in numbers between advances and declines as compared with last evening. It was given out to-day that the Pacific Mail's quarterly meeting to consider the question of a dividend would be held to-morrow and the usual amount would probably declared on which that stock sold up from 51⅞ at which it sold early in the day to 53⅞ in the last hour closing at 52⅞ a gain of 1 per cent.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET

CHICAGO April 14—The conditions were all of a bullish tendency at the opening on change this morning. The Russian war cloud appeared more ominously threatening than ever and British consols were reported at the lowest point at which they have yet been quoted. In addition the visible supply showed a large decrease and crop reports were no less gloomy. The market in consequence was again very strong June wheat advancing to 94, with a few sales as high as 94½ but offerings at these figures, with an advance in consols, sent the market back a fraction.

Wheat closed excited and lower on peace rumors, 87¼ April 91⅛ May 94⅛ June. Corn, ⅞@1 lower 44⅛ April 48⅛ May 48¾ June. Oats lower 36⅛ May 36⅞ June. Rye strong at 66½. Barley nominal.

LOT WRIGHT'S ACCOUNTS

An Opinion by the First Comptroller of the Treasury

WASHINGTON, April 14—Judge Durham first comptroller of the treasury has given an opinion in regard to the accounts of Lot Wright United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio for expenses incurred in the election for member of congress in Cincinnati in 1884. The account was mostly for payment of deputy marshals. The comptroller says: "Some of said deputies have been paid for nine days services some for three, four and more days and a very large number for two days. Some of these deputies were not citizens of Ohio, and some citizens of Hamilton county but not of the city of Cincinnati. My predecessor had decided before I came into office that said deputies must be voters of the state and city and that it was illegal to appoint a deputy who was not a voter of the city. In this I fully concur and I go further. I believe the spirit of the law is to take said deputies from the respective precincts in which they vote. The object of having said deputies is to aid in preventing illegal and fraudulent registration and voting, and to preserve peace."

The reason given for this holding is that a deputy marshal cannot fulfill this requirement unless he is a voter in the precinct in which he serves, not having the requisite acquaintance. Judge Durham expressed a hope that this construction will be adhered to in the future. He thinks that an unnecessary number of deputies were employed on election day and some for a longer period than necessary that while a marshal should be given large discretion he should exercise it with prudence. As there was no registration at the election in question he is at a loss to know for what purpose deputies were appointed before the day of election nor why such a large number should be employed the day after. The opinion holds that in this Marshal Wright abused his discretion.

The opinion concludes as follows: "As an original proposition I should decide in this case that the marshal be not allowed any deputies except on the day of the election where there was no registration unless there was clear proof that it was necessary to protect the officers in the full counting of ballots after the election was over and to preserve the peace and then only so long as might be necessary to give that protection. In this before said Mr Wright I suppose acted on the custom of allowing for payment of those deputies the day after election and I shall not disturb the same. But the account will be adjusted upon the basis of rejecting the claim for pay of said deputies who were not voters in the city of Cincinnati at the time of his appointment and rejecting all claims for more than two days of service of deputies, unless this shall be shown by proof a necessity for the same."

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

EMPLOYES MUST PAY THEIR DEBTS

WASHINGTON April 14—Secretary Endicott has issued the following circular: "In view of the many complaints received on the subject it is hereby announced to employes of this department that they are expected to pay their just debts. While the department will not permit itself to be used as a collection agency, and declines to take action in cases where illegal interest is charged or where indebtedness was incurred before the employe entered the service of the department neither will it harbor any one who contracts debts on the strength of his official position and then without sufficient excuse neglects to make payments and generally it may be said where a case has been tried and judgment rendered, that it is too late to deny the justness or correctness of the amount of the judgment. Hereafter complaints will be sent to the proper chiefs of bureaus who will be expected to take such action as may be necessary and if it should appear the employe is using his official position as a shield to avoid payment of his debts and in violation of this circular, he will be recommended for discharge."

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL APPEAL

WASHINGTON, April 14—Representatives of the Southern Pacific railroad company have given notice of a desire to contest the recent order of Commissioner Sparks throwing open to settlement as a part of the forfeited Texas Pacific land grant about 600 000 acres and it a point where the land grants of the Texas Pacific and the Southern Pacific line overlaps and which is claimed by the Southern Pacific as a part of their land grant. As the commissioner did not show a disposition to hear argument on the subject the attorney for the railroad company intimated that an appeal would be taken to Secretary Lamar.

BEHIND WITH THEIR WORK

WASHINGTON April 14—A special committee appointed by Acting Secretary Fairchild to examine the methods of doing business in the office of the second comptroller of the treasury has reported that the work of the bureau is about three months in arrears and cannot be brought up to date by extra diligence on the part of the clerical force, and by a slight increase in the number of clerks. Acting Secretary Fairchild said to-day that his idea was to secure in the future if possible a more prompt settlement of the accounts of government officers than had obtained in the past.

[illegible] COMMISSIONER COLMAN

WASHINGTON April 14—Commissioner Colman practically began the discharge of his official duties as commissioner of agriculture to-day. He is already familiar with the general working of the department but will give himself some time to study the details of its machinery before formulating any general plan of operations. He will go to Boston the latter part of next week to hear the opinions of cattle importers and others interested in the removal of the cattle quarantine from Waltham to Littleton Massachusetts.

TO REVIVE THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE

NEW YORK April 14—At a meeting of the maritime association yesterday the committee on the revival of commerce submitted a memorial to be sent to all commercial bodies in the country showing the decay of the American mercantile marine and urging the necessity of taking steps to revive foreign commerce. The committee favor the French system of 30 cents per ton being granted by the government for every 1000 miles sailed by vessels, sail or steam built and owned in the United States and engaged in foreign commerce the payment to continue a number of years after which it is to be reduced 10 per cent annually. Other commercial bodies are asked to join in asking congress to pass such law.

TALK OF THE NEWSPAPERS

Washington Post Dem.—The administration will probably have no hesitation in accepting the resignation [illegible] or [illegible] [illegible] It should not take long to decide which of the two is running the government.

Philadelphia Press [illegible] announces that he [illegible] [illegible] Miss Sweet [illegible] at Chicago. We [illegible]

Brooklyn [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Miss Alice C Sweet of Chicago [illegible] Commissioner Black [illegible] him.

Chicago Journal—Miss Sweet a popular pension agent [illegible] General Black. He requested her resignation but informed her that there were personal reasons [illegible] with the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] she resigned [illegible] [illegible] to dismiss her from her [illegible]

Newburg [illegible] The great mass of the [illegible] party [illegible] the democrats have any special preference of democratic doctrines over republican doctrines for they do not differ very materially but they want to see the democrats fill offices. But if democrats are not put into the vacancies then [illegible] of their voting is defeated by their own [illegible]

PRESS PAIR

A [illegible] man a bar [illegible] Tell him that he is fully capable of holding a position in the weather bureau.—Brooklyn Times

"No," said a disgusted office-seeker, "I didn't catch the fever and ague when I was in Washington but I got the cold shake."—New York Journal

The rapidity with which raw material is converted into marketable goods is shown by the fact that new maple sugar is always on sale two weeks before the sap begins to run.—Boston Post

Russia has only 62 periodicals. When a Russian editor goes to lunch and is away more than half an hour a new one is appointed and the former editor's obituary is written up.—Boston Globe

The kids are finding fault with Mr Cleveland for appointing so many old men to office. The boys should remember that a man can't wait twenty-four years for a chance at the public crib without having some silver threads among the gold.—St Paul Globe

Miss Cleveland is said to speak four foreign languages with the utmost fluency. And by the way she has a brother by the name of Grover who can throw more pathos and dignified force into the English monosyllable "no" when he is approached by a delegation of Missourians than characterized the Frenchman of the old guard at Waterloo when asked by the enemy to surrender.—Chicago News

HOW THE INDIAN SCARE OCCURRED

The following dispatch received at department headquarters yesterday, explains how easy it is to get up an Indian scare

LEWISTON Idaho April 14

To Adjutant General, Department Columbia Vancouver Barracks

After a full investigation at the agency I find there was no man killed. The whole thing originated by the Indians having joked with a half-witted miner named Kentuck who was asking for the women and who had [illegible] Pierce City without his knowledge.

I will order the troop [illegible] to [illegible] its station.

Signed McGREGOR, Major

A Tribute to Grant.

Boston C[illegible]

Notwithstanding [illegible] political campaign was at its height when the firm of Grant & Ward met with its disastrous failure a year ago the people of the country refused to believe that General Grant was cognizant of any of the dishonesty that led to that affair. They now know by most unmistakable evidence that their opinion was well founded. Cancer has hurried dissolution, but aside from that General Grant was dying of a broken heart. Beneath the immovable exterior of the grand old warrior is a delicate sensitiveness little dreamed of by the casual observer.

Where the Mugwump Doesn't Grow

(St Louis Republican (dem.)

Beyond New York is the west and here in the west where the eye can range over boundless prairies thick with thriving farms and dotted with great and growing cities the blessed thought that in all the broad expanse from the Allegheny mountains to the Rockies there is not one single mugwump induces in us such a spirit of profound gratitude that it is impossible for disaffection to exist within it in the heart of a western democrat.

The Rebels on Top

Albany Evening Journal

Of the nineteen men from the south nominated to office by President Cleveland thus far four confederate soldiers. Of twenty-seven men from the north nominated for office only four served in the Union army. Copperheads and confederates to the front.

"Pioneer Days"

Mr S A Clarke of the Willamette Farmer commenced in last Sunday's OREGONIAN an extended article on the early history of Oregon which is well written intermingling interesting bits of history with some good rhetoric.—Salem Statesman
